Updated as of August 26th, 2025. 2025-2026 school year

Article I: Name and Purpose

1.1 The official name of the Campus Group will be Project Sunshine UTSC

1.2 The campus group may be referred to by the acronym PS UTSC

1.3 The purpose, objectives, mission and/or mandate of the organization is to Project Sunshine at the University of Toronto Scarborough (UTSC) is a student-led chapter of the national non-profit organization Project Sunshine Canada. Its purpose is to bring the healing power of play to children facing medical challenges by providing joyful, creative, and therapeutic programming in hospitals and healthcare settings. The mission of the UTSC chapter is to transform clinical environments into uplifting spaces where pediatric patients can experience emotional relief, connection, and a sense of normalcy through engaging activities. The chapter operates under three core objectives: to organize volunteer-driven play-based programming both in person and virtually, to raise awareness and support for pediatric patients through campus events and fundraising initiatives, and to cultivate student leadership by involving UTSC students in meaningful service and advocacy. Volunteers participate in programs such as "Here to Play," "Kits for Play," and "TelePlay," delivering activities that include arts and crafts, storytelling, and interactive games. The mandate of Project Sunshine at UTSC is to empower students to serve as compassionate leaders who contribute to the wellbeing of hospitalized children and their families. By combining community service with creative expression, the chapter fosters a culture of empathy, engagement, and social responsibility on campus while supporting the broader mission of Project Sunshine Canada.
