

Constitution of “KPE Roadmap to Wellness”

1. Article One – Name and Purpose

- 1.1. The official name of the recognized student group is “KPE Roadmap to Wellness”
- 1.2. The official acronym or abbreviation of the group is “KPERW”
- 1.3. The purpose, objectives, mission and/or mandate of the organization is to increase awareness of accessibility and mental health services provided at a reduced cost (or no additional costs) on- and off-campus both by the University of Toronto’s Student Health Plan and by social services in Ontario. The organization will focus on delivering this information to students in a clear and concise manner via peer-to-peer workshops, developing crowdsourced resource “roadmaps” which guide students in the process of seeking and accessing the services they require, and through outreach and advocacy initiatives.

Additionally, the Roadmap to Wellness organization also aims to promote the practice of help-seeking behaviours and help develop productive coping skills among University of Toronto students in order to maintain a positive mental health. The organization will aim to develop these skills and tools within students by hosting mental health workshops (run by club members and for special workshops run by a mental health practitioner), developing fun interactive initiatives that tackle mental health issues and allow all students to participate in on a daily basis without the need to make solid commitments, and by hosting de-stressor programs/activities throughout the year.
