Article I - NAME

The official name of this body is “The University of Toronto Sudanese Students Union”.
The acronym or abbreviation of this group is UofT SSU.

Article II - MANDATE:

The Sudanese Students Union was founded to support Sudanese students on campus by fostering a strong community through diverse events and initiatives that help Sudan.

Article III - Membership

A. Eligibility of Membership:

Members with voting privileges shall be currently registered students at all three (3) campuses of the University of Toronto.

Non-voting membership may be extended to interested staff, faculty, and alumni, or persons from outside the University, without restriction on those grounds outlined by the Ontario Human Rights Code’s Prohibited Grounds of Discrimination. However, these members do not hold the aforementioned rights. Members must register through the membership sign-up form or through a designated executive by submitting their full name and a valid email address.

Staff, faculty, or alumni members may hold non-voting membership. Persons holding these nonvoting memberships cannot serve as an officer (including financial signing officer) or contact persons of the Student Group.

The membership fee will be $0 per year.

B. Termination of Executives or General Members:

Any member of the organization who commits an act negatively affecting the interests of the organization and its members, including non-disclosure of a significant or continuing conflict of interest, may be given notice of removal. The member up for removal shall have the right to appeal. A vote will be held at an executive meeting, and a two-thirds majority vote from the current council in favour of removal is required. The member must have the right to an appeal.

The member will be removed from the organization membership and will lose any privileges associated with being a member of the organization.

Executive members are subject to the same termination or impeachment process and, as determined by the vote, may lose their executive position along with their membership to the group.

Article IV - Executive Council:

A. Composition

The executive council shall consist of Thirteen (13) members from the membership constituency.

Exec team:

- PRESIDENT(s)
- VICE-PRESIDENT INTERNAL
- VICE-PRESIDENT EXTERNAL

Councillors:

- FINANCIAL DIRECTOR
- EVENTS DIRECTOR(s)
- MEDIA DIRECTOR
- COMMUNITY DIRECTOR(s)

Campus Representatives

- UTSG
- UTM
- UTSC

Year Representatives

- FIRST-YEAR REP
- MID-YEAR REP
- UPPER-YEAR REP

B. Eligibility

All members of the constituency are eligible to be part of the executive council.

C. Appointments

The executive council shall be appointed through an election where:

The executive committee shall appoint one (1) Chief Returning Officer (CRO) who shall be non-biased in the results of the election and shall be required to disclose any and all conflicts of interest in the election.

The CRO Returning Officer shall accept nominations only from group members that are registered U of T students for voting positions, and additionally, staff, faculty, or alumni members for non-voting executive positions from the general membership before the beginning of March. Candidates have to be members in good standing and be part of the group for at least one month prior to the nomination period.

The CRO shall select three (3) election dates before March 30th for the voting period. These dates will be announced in a minimum of two (2) weeks prior to election dates and must fall on weekdays.

Bi-elections shall occur in the Fall semester, by October 30th at the latest of the academic year and shall allow for the election of a first-year representative and to fill any positions not filled in the spring elections.

The Executive council may appoint councillors to any position that has not been filled in the spring and subsequent Fall bi-election by November 15th of the academic year.

Registered U of T students may not vote by proxy. Non-registered students may not nominate or vote in elections.

D. Terms of office

All councillors will serve a term of one academic year. The term of executive positions shall be from May 1st to April 30th.

E. Meetings

The executive council is to meet at regular intervals that are at the discretion of the President and vice presidents and will have a week's (7 days) notice to the councillors and the constituency. These meetings are only open to the executives and any members or external party through invitation.

F. Termination

A councillor may be terminated from their role if:

- They missed 2 consecutive council meetings without notice to the VP internal.
- Deemed unfit for the role or does not carry out their responsibilities as outlined by Article IV of this constitution, this is at the discretion of the council.
- An executive councillor may bring forward a motion of termination of another executive councillor during the monthly meetings and the council shall vote on this motion. The councillor the motion is recommending for recommendation shall be terminated from the council if two-thirds of the councillors vote for the motion. Any councillor not present at the meeting shall be contacted for their vote.

G. Resignation

Any councillor can resign at any time. With a 2 weeks notice to allow appropriate time for the council to fill their position or any other appropriate procedures needed.

Article VI - Finances

The Financial Director shall keep records of all income and expenses and act as the treasurer for the organization. The Treasurer shall ensure the group's financial health.

The group's executives may not engage in activities in the name of the organization that are essentially commercial in nature. This is not intended to preclude the collection of membership fees to cover the expenses of the group, or of charges for specific activities, programs or events, or to prohibit groups from engaging in legitimate fundraising. However, the group will not have as a major activity a function that makes it an on-campus part of a commercial organization and will not provide services and goods at a profit when that profit is used for purposes other than those internal to the organization and its initiatives, and will not pay salaries to some or all of its officers.

Article VII - Meetings

A. Annual General Meetings (AGMs):

The group shall hold general meetings at least twice per year, i.e. once per academic term.

The Executive Committee will announce these dates two (2) weeks prior to holding the meetings. These meetings are intended to go over the group's annual activity plan.

B. Executive Meetings:

The executive council shall meet on a recurring basis where the date and times are to be set by the President(s). The quorum of executive meetings shall be 50%+1 of executives.

Article VIII - The Executive Council's Code of Conduct

While in office, all members of the council are expected to uphold the following Codes of Conduct. Maintaining these codes will ensure a safe environment for both trust and a professional relationship to flourish:

1. Confidentiality – All matters discussed amongst the SSU Executive Team, including but not exclusive to dialogue exchanged during Executive meetings, Intra-meetings etc. shall be kept confidential and remain amongst SSU Executive Members unless given permission to by the President and Vice-Presidents.
 - a. The disclosure of confidential information between the aforementioned individuals shall be resolved by the remaining Council Members using interventions of Transformative Justice that they deem fit to amend the violation.
2. Intra-Communal Conflicts – Disputes to any degree amongst any members of the Executive Council must be dissolved as soon as possible.
3. Order of Professionalism – Executive Members shall maintain a level of professionalism throughout their duration in office by upholding all values of the University of Toronto's Code of Conduct. Social dynamics amongst all members of the Council must uphold a professional demeanour throughout the duration of their time in office.
 - a. It is required that all members of the SSU are respected and treated in an equal and equitable manner during any and all moments of interaction with the council.
 - b. Unless there has been correspondence between the Executive and the President about arrival after the start time of a meeting, all executives are required to arrive at executive meetings in a timely manner. This is to ensure every meeting is maximized and all executives' time and energy are being respected.

4. All executives are expected to be punctual.
5. All executives shall take a proactive nature in communicating with the council, especially in relation to functions of their roles, updates and any events and initiatives they are planning.
6. Other than the President(s), the Vice-Presidents are the only Executives with the authority to publicly comment and make statements on behalf of the organization, primarily in meetings and in partnership negotiations.
 - a. Executive members are however empowered to use their role as part of the organization to explore possible collaborations, as long as they do not commit to anything on behalf of the organization without prior knowledge of the President(s) and the executive council.

Article IX- Amendments

The Executive team will oversee the process of reviewing the constitution annually before the Winter semesters Annual General Meeting and any amendments will be shared with members for the members' input. Constitutional amendments shall require a 2/3 majority to be passed at Executive council meetings.

The Executive council shall formally adopt the new constitution and submit the revised constitution to the respective University offices (i.e. The Office of Student Life, The University of Toronto Students' Union, etc) within four (4) weeks of its approval by the executive council.
