2. The meeting must be open to all applicable general members. General members must receive notice of the meeting in accordance with the constitution.

II. Approval of Previous Minutes

1. The minutes need not be read aloud but they should be entered into the organization's official minute ledger upon approval by the general membership.
2. The minutes are prepared by the Communications Director or some other individual appointed by the general membership to act as recording secretary. Any general member may suggest changes to the minutes before the general membership adopts them. The suggested changes should be set forth in the minutes for the record, and then the general membership should adopt or reject such changes.
3. Minutes should state precisely each motion considered by the general membership, and identify the general members voting in favor, against, or abstaining, and whether the motion was carried. Minutes need not reflect the comments made except in those instances when the member desires to make his/her comments recorded.
4. When possible, changes to the minutes and adoption of the minutes should be done by acquiescence of all general members. Formal voting on the minutes is only necessary where it appears to the Communications Director that there is a disagreement.

III. Executive Reports

1. Executives may report their findings or recommendations to the general membership at this point of the meeting.
2. The full report should be presented and then general members, in turn, may ask questions or comment. It is not appropriate to make motions or discuss items of business during this portion of the meeting.
3. This time should also be used for any presentations to be made to the general membership.

IV. Open Forum

1. It is the custom and practice of most organizations to allow general members an open forum to ask questions and speak about their concerns to an executive after a report has been provided.
2. Strict time limitations should be imposed by the Communications Director and these limitations must be enforced. Each general member should address the Communications Director regarding an issue and must speak courteously and to the point.

V. Old and New Business

1. All items that were tabled during previous meetings must be revisited during the business portion, occurring after executive reports.
2. The general membership may vote to postpone consideration of any old business or it may remove any item from consideration.
3. Except in the case of emergency business, all new items of business are heard only after all of the old items have been addressed by the general membership.

4. All business must be conducted in the form of motions or resolutions adopted by a vote of the general membership.

VI. Motions and Deliberations

1. When an item of business is to be discussed, the Communications Director announces the item to be discussed and opens the floor to discussion.
2. No general member may speak until recognized by the Communications Director. No general member may interrupt the speaker who has the floor.
3. The Communications Director may impose reasonable time limitations. All time limitations must be uniformly imposed upon all of the general members. The speaker shall be given a one-minute warning before time runs out. By vote of a majority of the general membership, time limits may be extended.
4. The Communications Director is to recognize each general member in turn. Discussion shall be limited to the item of business at hand, and the Communications Director shall have the authority to take the floor from a speaker who does not limit discussion to the item of business at hand.
5. No general member may speak to an issue for a second time until all other general members have had the opportunity to speak to it for the first time. Likewise, no general member may speak to an issue for a third time until all other general members have had the opportunity to speak to it for a second time.
6. When it appears to the Communications Director that all general members have had the opportunity to fully discuss the matter at hand, the Director should announce that the item of business is ready for a vote.

VII. Voting

1. There are 3 basic motions for each item of business:
 - A motion to adopt a specific action by the board.
 - A motion to postpone the item to another meeting (including fact-finding assignments to a person or committee).
 - A motion to remove an item from consideration
2. The general membership is limited to discussing one item of business at a time, but there are no limits to the number of motions that may be considered as to how to dispose of that item of business.
3. After the general membership has had the opportunity to discuss each motion presented for consideration, the Communications Director will call each motion presented to a vote.
4. The fact that a motion has been adopted or failed does not prevent the item of business from being added to the discussion of a meeting in the future and all motions may be reconsidered at any time by the general membership.
