- 4.2 The broad responsibilities of each executive position are as follows:
- 4.2.1 The role of the President is to oversee and manage MTA, maintain relationships with other management associations, and play a role in the future strategic planning of the Club. The President(s) are the official spokesperson of MTA and will guide
 - 4.2.2 The role of the VP of Marketing is to oversee all external communication: including all print, web and direct marketing material. The VP will be the primary point of continuous contact between the marketing team and the rest of the team, notably the Senior Team. They will manage and support their team by providing guidance and feedback on marketing material and voicing their concerns to the Senior Team
 - 4.2.3 The role of the VP of Operations is to oversee the organization and execution of events that MTA hosts. The VP will be the primary point of continuous contact between the operations team and the rest of the team, notably the Senior Team. The VP will also need to oversee MTA's finances. They will guide their team by providing feedback and ensuring that MTA's events are providing value for attendees.
 - 4.2.4 The role of the VP of Corporate Relations is to establish external connections with organizations, food vendors, faculty and firms. The VP will be the primary point of continuous contact between the corporate relations team and the rest of the team, notably the Senior Team. The VP will also create deliverables such as decorations, packages, gifts and follow-up emails, to keep close contact with stakeholders
 - 4.2.5 The Presidents will oversee the Technology department. They'll create long-term roadmaps for the continual development of the website and work with external parties in ensuring smooth operations of events.
 - 4.2.6 The role of the Director of Marketing is to create promotional material including posters and videos. They'll also have to manage MTA's brand through social media management.
 - 4.2.7 The role of the Director of Web Development is to maintain and update the website with the latest content and events that MTA is involved in. They will need to work with the VP of Technology to ensure that all information on the website is accurate and up to date.

- 4.2.8 The role of the Director of Internal affairs is to manage internal logistics within the club such as communication with the Management Department, room bookings and internal complaints.
- 4.2.9 The role of the Director of Corporate Relations is to identify key sponsorship opportunities and outreach to potential partners in the community to secure monetary or non-monetary sponsors, such as instructors, gifts or networkers.
- 4.2.10 The role of the Director of Technology is to plan and coordinate the technology aspect of the logistics of events. The Director will work alongside the Director of Web Development to collect promotional material for the website. The Director will assist with all responses requested by the VP of Technology and the Co-Presidents.
- 4.2.11 The role of the Director of Operations is to plan and coordinate logistics, boothing schedules and posting schedules. The Director will assist with all responses requested by the VP of Operations and the Co-Presidents.
- 4.2.12 The role of the Associates is to assist their corresponding Directors and Vice Presidents with various tasks. Associates are responsible for learning the tasks and responsibilities performed by the rest of the Team.
- 4.3 Any student that will be enrolled at the University of Toronto as a Full-Time or Part-Time student for at least one semester during the term specified for any given role within MTA can hold an Executive or Senior Team position.
 - 4.3.1 Only previous Senior Team or Executive members can apply to be a Co-President in the following year. All other positions can be filled by any internal members or externals.
- 4.4 The term of Executives for MTA will be from when they are hired to April 30th of the next year. Hiring date may vary based on position. All Senior Team and Executive members must be determined before April 30th of the previous academic school year.
- 4.5 Any member of the Team may resign, provided that they deliver a written copy of their resignation to the Co-Presidents. Under these circumstances, the member will officially leave the club once they have passed on all ongoing and previous material (poster designs, contact information with potential sponsor, etc.) to the Co-Presidents.
- 4.6 Any vacancy of executives shall be filled by the President or designate of the organization until such a time where a by-election is held, a permanent appointment occurs, or a hiring process is conducted.
- 4.7 If a Co-President resigns, notice of such resignation must be submitted in writing and delivered to the executive committee at a valid executive meeting. Unless any such resignation is, by its terms, effective on a later date, it shall be effective on delivery to the executive committee, and no ratification by the organization shall be required to make the resignation official.
- 4.8 Any vacancy of the Co-President shall be filled by another executive committee member appointed by a simple and clear majority of the executive committee until such a time where a new Co-President is hired.
- 4.9 Team members may be asked to leave if they have demonstrated that they are unwilling to put effort into club activities or have intentionally and/or consistently violated another member's rights (as defined in Article III). In addition, all other measures, as outlined below, have been taken prior to the removal of club member:

- 4.9.1 The team member will be warned by the Co-Presidents of the issue that may lead to their removal from the club. The team member and Co-Presidents will discuss the issue and either come to agreement that the issue has been resolved or give the team member 14 days to demonstrate a change in the behavior/action.
- 4.9.2 After 14 days, the team member and Co-Presidents will reconvene to discuss the progress. They can either come to an agreement that the issue has been resolved or the team member will be given a final 7 days to demonstrate a change in behavior/action. If no change has been seen after these 7 days, the team member will be asked to leave.

- 7.7 Members will be severely disciplined if club funds are allocated towards personal use or social gatherings.
- 7.8 The Co-President, the Vice-President Operations, and only in special circumstances the Vice President of Corporate Relations shall be the sole signing authorities of banking instruments for the organization.
- 7.9 MTA will ensure that proper and accurate financial records are maintained and passed on to incoming executives following each year's elections.
- 7.10 MTA will accept full financial and production responsibility for all activities it sponsors, plans, or executes.

Article VIII: General and Executive Meetings

- 8.1 There will be at least one Team meeting per month, where at least one member from each functional team needs to be present, including the Senior Team. Smaller meetings may be held as needed in addition.
- 8.2 All meetings must be called at least 5 days in advance.

- 8.3 All meetings must have a meeting agenda sent out before the meeting and meeting minutes shall be recorded by the Operations Team. Each team must come prepared with updates regarding their progress.
- 8.4 Every member is expected to attend all meetings unless discussed with the Co-Presidents.
 - 8.4.1 If a member misses more than 3 consecutive meetings, without good reason they may be asked to leave the club by the Co-Presidents.

Article IX: Constitution

- 9.1 The Constitution serves as the official guide for MTA and its members. The team must be familiar with its contents and adhere to all rules, rights and regulations as outlined.
- 9.2 Amendments to the Constitution can be made as long as the change is approved by a majority vote by the entire team.
 - 9.2.1 Any member(s) who wishes to make an Amendment must present the adjustment to the Co-Presidents in written form at least three days prior to the meeting when it will be voted upon.
 - 8.2.2 The Co-Presidents will share the adjustment with the team at least two days prior to the meeting. During the meeting, following the proposed amendment, the team will discuss the proposed adjustments and vote on whether or not the constitution should be amended.
- 9.3 Incoming Co-Presidents must read through the Constitution, ask for clarification from outgoing Co-Presidents and modify as needed.
- 9.4 The Constitution needs to be finalized before April 30th and be presented to the new Team at the following meeting.

Article X: Precedence of University Policies

- 10.1 MTA will abide by all pertinent University of Toronto policies, procedures, and guidelines. Where the University's policies, procedures, and guidelines conflict with those of MTA, the University's policies, procedures, and guidelines will take precedence.

Article XI: Legal Liability

- 11.1 The University of Toronto Scarborough does not endorse MTA's beliefs or philosophy nor does it assume legal liability for the group's activities on or off campus.
