

Constitution of “University of Toronto Sports and Business Student’s Association” 2024/25

1. Name

The official name of this recognized student group is “University of Toronto Sports and Business Student’s Association”

The acronym or abbreviation of this group is: UTSB

2. Purpose and Objectives

University of Toronto Sports and Business Association (UTSB) is a student-run sports business association in Canada that aims to bridge the gap between university students and sports industry professionals and organizations since 2011. We do this by hosting networking events throughout the year as well as informative webinars and conferences and other creative initiatives. For members, we provide them with useful tools and learning experiences to ensure the best chance for success in the sports industry.

3. Membership

Executive members with voting privileges shall be currently registered students of the University of Toronto on either a full-time or part-time basis.

Staff, faculty, or alumni members may hold non-voting executive positions. These nonvoting executive positions shall be limited to a maximum of one (1) or ten per cent (10%) of the full executive body, whichever is greatest. Persons holding these nonvoting executive positions cannot serve as an officer (including financial signing officer) or contact person of the Student Group.

Members may be extended to interested staff, faculty, and alumni, or persons from outside the University, without restriction on those grounds outlined by the Ontario Human Rights Code’s Prohibited Grounds of Discrimination. However, these members do not hold the aforementioned rights. Members must register with a designated executive by submitting their full name and a valid email address.

The membership fee will be $0 per year.

For recognition by the University of Toronto Students’ Union (UTSU), the group must maintain a minimum of 30 members, a total of 51% of membership are UTSU members. The group must also maintain recognition from the Office of Student Life. These requirements are subject to change and should be checked with UTSU annually to ensure qualifications are met.

4. Executive List and Duties

The executive committee shall be comprised of at least two (2) elected officers. These include a President and Vice-President or two Co-Presidents.

The President/ Co-Presidents shall:

- Oversee the operations, management, and overall success of the group
- Be the spokesperson for the group both internally and externally
- Hold signing officer authority for financial purposes
- Preside over group board meetings as well as general meetings
- Ensure transition of office to the future executives

Additional responsibilities may include:

- Leading Conference execution and execution of additional key programs such as our mentorship program

The Vice-President/ Co-President shall:

- Assume duties of the President in his/her absence
- Oversee the various departments
- Ensure that all the activities of the club meet regulations and policies of the University of Toronto
- Coordinate organizational recruitment efforts

The Directors shall:

- Keep weekly contact with their departments
- Provide updates at team meetings
- Record notes and motions for meetings
- Handle official correspondence of the organization

Additional responsibilities may include:

- Additional responsibilities vary depending on which department they direct.

The Coordinators shall:

- Be present at weekly meetings
- Actively participating in online webinars and events
- Advise members on their progress
- Perform the tasks requested by directors for their given department

The Associates shall:

- Be students in their first or second year of undergrad studies at the University of Toronto
- Be present at weekly meetings
- Actively participating in online webinars and events
- Advise members on their progress
- Perform the tasks requested by directors for their given department

The group may appoint Directors or Coordinators for various committees such as social committee, publicity committee, and so on; however, such positions do not hold executive decision-making authority.

Termination of Executives or General Members:

Any member of the club who commits an act negatively affecting the interests of the club and its members, including non-disclosure of a significant or continuing conflict of interest, may be given notice of removal. The member up for removal shall have the right to defend his/her actions. A vote will be held at an executive meeting, and a two-thirds majority vote of the current executives present in favor of removal is required. The member must have the right to an appeal before the general membership, and the majority vote of the general membership will have the final say on the matter.

The member will be removed from the club's membership and will lose any privileges associated with being a member of the club.

Executive members are subject to the same termination or impeachment process and, as determined by the vote, may lose their executive position along with their membership to the group.

5. Elections

The executive committee shall strike the Elections Committee and appoint one (1) Chief Returning Officer (CRO) and two (2) Scrutinizers from the general members on the committee to conduct and hold elections in March. All members of the Elections Committee shall be non-biased in the results of the election and shall be required to disclose any and all conflicts of interest in the election.

The CRO Returning Officer shall accept nominations only from group members that are registered U of T students for voting positions, and staff, faculty, or alumni members for non-voting executive positions from the general membership before the beginning of March. Candidates have to be members in good standing and be part of the group for at least one month prior to the nomination period.

The CRO shall select three (3) election dates before March 30th for the voting period. These dates will be announced in a minimum of two (2) weeks prior to elections dates and must fall on weekdays.

The voting will work in a tiered system based on contribution to club affairs whereby the President's vote is worth 10 points, the Vice-President's vote is worth 7 points, Director votes are worth 5 points, Manager votes are worth 3 points and Associate votes are worth 2 points. Voters may opt to spoil their ballots.

The CRO and Scrutinizers shall provide each voting U of T registered student with a paper ballot on the voting dates and ask the student to place their ballot in an enclosed box.

In preparation for a tie, the CRO shall select a U of T registered student executive from amongst the executive committee, to cast their ballot and seal it in an envelope. In the event of a tie for an executive position, one of the two Scrutinizers shall break the seal and count the ballot in order to break the tie.

After the election is over, the CRO and Scrutinizers shall count the ballots. The candidate with the most votes shall be elected to the position. The CRO and Scrutinizers shall submit a report of the results of the elections to the Executive Committee and general members.

Registered U of T students may not vote by proxy. Non-registered students may not nominate or vote in elections.

Only registered U of T students who have paid any applicable membership fees and have been a member in good standing for 30 days prior to election dates are eligible for voting.

Term of executive positions shall be from May 1st to April 30th.

6. Finances

The Executive team shall keep records of all income and expenses. The team shall present the group's financial health at the annual general meetings. The Executive Committee will vote on expenditures of over $500.00 by majority vote at an executive meeting.

The group's executive or members may not engage in activities that are essentially commercial in nature. This is not intended to preclude the collection of membership fees to cover the expenses of the group, or of charges for specific activities, programs or events, or to prohibit groups from engaging in legitimate fundraising. However, the group will not have as a major activity a function that makes it an on-campus part of a commercial organization, will not provide services and goods at a profit when that profit is used for purposes other than those of the organization, and will not pay salaries to some or all of its officers.

7. Meetings

A) Annual General Meetings (AGMs):

The group shall hold general meetings at least once per two weeks, i.e. once every second week. These will be held virtually.

The Executive Committee will announce these dates prior to holding the meetings. These meetings are intended to go over the group's weekly activity plan, financial health and propose or vote on constitutional amendments, if any. Motions will require 2/3 majority of registered members in attendance for a vote to be cast. The motion with the most votes will be passed.

b) Executive Meetings:

The executive committee shall meet on a weekly basis where date and times are to be set by an executive. The quorum of executive meetings shall be 50%+1 of executives.

8. Amendments

Any registered U of T students may propose and vote on amendments to this constitution. The Executive Committee will administer the process of having amendments discussed at general meetings.

Constitutional amendments shall require a 2/3 majority to be passed at Annual General Meetings by registered U of T members in attendance.

The Executive Committee shall formally adopt the new constitution and submit the revised constitution to the respective University offices (i.e. The Office of Student Life, The University of Toronto Students' Union, etc) within two (2) weeks of its approval by general members.
