- 19.2. The Department of P&E shall conduct a biennial review of the following official documents:
  - 19.2.1. The UTSRI Official Rulebook outlines all the rules, regulations, and guidelines for the competition. It covers eligibility criteria, submission requirements, judging criteria, and any other rules relevant to the competition.
  - 19.2.2. The UTSRI Guideline serves as a contestant handbook, providing essential procedures and information for contestants during the competition.
  - 19.2.3. The UTSRI Constitution outlines the organization's structure, governance, and operational guidelines.
- 19.3. All manuals drafted by members of UTSRI must be reviewed by the Department of P&E and approved by the President.
  - 19.3.1. Such procedures act as an addendum to the UTSRI Constitution
  - 19.3.2. Once signed, they serve as official documents that provide procedures and policies that members shall adhere to.
- 19.4. The Department of P&E must review and amend the Crisis Management and Continuity Plans.
  - 19.4.1. The CMCP serves an urgent procedure manual to maintain operations during unforeseen disruptions.

- 19.4.2.If needed, the President shall invoke this procedure with the support of a 1/2 majority from the Executive Committee.
- 19.4.3.The CMCP, when invoked, supersedes any conflicting terms or procedures outlined in the Constitution and/or any other official documents.
- 19.4.4.Once the crisis and the invocation period of the CMCP are concluded, the Department of P&E must review all actions taken and provide a comprehensive report. This report should include an evaluation of the effectiveness of the CMCP and recommendations for future improvements.
- 19.5.The Department of IA shall maintain a list of group members.
  - 19.5.1.By joining the Committee, all members agree to have their information stored and documented by the Department of IA.
  - 19.5.2.The Department of IA shall not disclose any private information of any Organization members to unrelated persons.
  - 19.5.3.The Department of A&S is responsible for taking the attendance in every meeting and handing said records to the Department of IA.
- 19.6.The Department of P&E must document all official documentations issued by the Committee and related to the Organization.

20. ARTICLE XX - CONFIDENTIALITY AND PRIVACY

- 20.1.Upon joining the Organization, all members shall agree to share the commitment to uphold the Organization's integrity and maintain confidentiality regarding all internal matters and discussions.
- 20.2.Members shall not disclose any confidential information or discussions outside of the Organization without explicit permission from the President or the Executive Committee.
- 20.3.Confidential information include but is not limited to: financial status and information, sponsor and/or partner details, Organization strategies and plans, member contact information, meeting minutes and discussions, Organization budget and financial reports, member performance evaluations, proprietary information related to competitions or events, and/or any other information designated as confidential by the Organization or its leadership.
- 20.4.Personal information of members shall be kept confidential and used solely for Organization-related purposes, following applicable privacy laws and regulations.
- 20.5.Any breach of confidentiality may result in disciplinary action as outlined in this Constitution.

21. ARTICLE XXI - MEMBERSHIP REVIEW

- 21.1.The Department of IA is responsible for conducting a membership review every academic year.
- 21.2.The Department of IA shall review each member's participation in Organization activities, adherence to Organization policies and codes of conduct, and contribution to the goals and objectives of UTSRI.

- 21.3. The Department of IA shall collect documentation of each member's participation, including meeting attendance records, project involvement, and any other relevant activities.
- 21.4. VPs shall be asked to provide an evaluation of their department members' contributions to the Organization.
- 21.5. The Department shall evaluate the documentation and make recommendations regarding each member's eligibility for co-curricular credits and continued membership in the Organization.
- 21.6. Based on the evaluation, the Department shall make a recommendation regarding each member's eligibility for co-curricular credits and continued membership. The Department of Internal Affairs shall notify each member of the decision in writing.
- 21.7. Members who are deemed ineligible for co-curricular credits or membership may appeal the decision to the Department of Internal Affairs within five (5) days of notification.

22. ARTICLE XXII - EVALUATION AND ASSESSMENT

- 22.1. UTSRI shall conduct regular evaluations to assess the Organization's performance and effectiveness in achieving its goals.
- 22.2. Feedback shall be collected from various stakeholders, including but not limited to, Organization Members, participants, sponsors, and partnering organizations.
- 22.3. Feedback collection methods may include surveys, interviews, focus groups, and review of performance metrics.
- 22.4. The Department of P&E shall be responsible for coordinating the evaluation process and analyzing feedback.
- 22.5. Feedback collected through the evaluation process shall be used to identify strengths and areas for improvement within the Organization.
- 22.6. The Department of P&E shall compile and analyze feedback to develop recommendations for improving the Organization's performance and effectiveness.
- 22.7. Recommendations shall be presented to the Executive Committee for review and implementation.
- 22.8. The evaluation process shall include considerations for equity, diversity, and inclusion (EDI).
  - 22.8.1. Feedback collection methods and evaluation criteria shall be designed to ensure equitable representation and participation of all stakeholders.
  - 22.8.2. The Department of P&E shall monitor and address any equity issues identified through the evaluation process.
- 22.9. The process of evaluating the competition shall be outlined in a separate UTSRI Rulebook.
  - 22.9.1. The evaluation criteria, scoring rubrics, and procedures for resolving disputes shall be clearly defined in the Rulebook or Bylaw.
  - 22.9.2. The Department of P&E shall ensure that the evaluation process during the competition adheres to the principles of fairness, transparency, and accountability.

23. ARTICLE XXIII - MEMBERS' CODES OF CONDUCT

- 23.1. Members of UTSRI shall conduct themselves in a professional and respectful manner at all times. They shall uphold the values and principles of the organization and adhere to the highest standards of integrity, honesty, and accountability.
- 23.2. UTSRI is committed to promoting diversity, equity, and inclusion. Members shall respect the diverse backgrounds, experiences, and perspectives of others, and refrain from engaging in discriminatory or harassing behavior based on race, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, religion, disability, or any other characteristic.
- 23.3. Members shall respect the confidentiality of sensitive information shared within the organization. They shall not disclose confidential information without proper authorization and shall use discretion when discussing organizational matters outside of official channels.
- 23.4. Members shall avoid conflicts of interest that may compromise their ability to act in the best interests of UTSRI. They shall disclose any potential conflicts of interest and refrain from participating in decisions where they have a personal or financial interest.
- 23.5. Members shall use UTSRI's resources, including funds, equipment, and facilities, responsibly and for the benefit of the organization. They shall not misuse or misappropriate resources for personal gain.
- 23.6. Members shall comply with all applicable laws, regulations, and organizational policies. They shall act in accordance with the constitution and bylaws of UTSRI and uphold the organization's mission and objectives.
- 23.7. Violation of the codes of conduct may result in disciplinary action, including but not limited to warning, suspension, or expulsion from UTSRI, refer to Articles XII and XII for such processes.
- 23.8. Members shall conduct themselves in a professional manner, respecting the opinions and contributions of others, and fostering a collaborative and inclusive environment.
