

West Indian Students' Association
WISA
CONSTITUTION 2023/2024 ACADEMIC TERM

Preamble

We understand the diversity of West Indian cultures within the University of Toronto's St. George Campus, and we seek to identify them, as well as establishing a stronger sense of community among West Indians and those of the Caribbean Diaspora. We intend to become a hub and home away from home to all those who call the West Indies home and heritage. WISA will hold social events and activities that will allow the entire student body an opportunity to get involved and participate. We intend to achieve a unique and open cultural experience for all West Indian and Caribbean students that attend the University of Toronto St. George by coordinating social events and also having a fundraising/charitable sector within the group. It is our belief that WISA will achieve this as we strive for nothing less than excellence with the use of our beautiful islands known as the West Indies.
