

Constitution of “Pledge for Pages”

Article I: Name of Organization

- 1.1 The official name of the organization will be “Pledge for Pages”.
- 1.2 Pledge for Pages may be referred to by the acronym “P4P”.

Article II: Purpose

- 2.1 Pledge for Pages is a non-profit organization that aims to raise awareness and educate UTSC’s community on the long-term physical, psychological, economic, and social impacts of poor literacy in children, as well as the increasing concern for poor literacy rates in Canada. Additionally, Pledge for Pages will address the gap in accessibility to books and other literacy supplies by organizing fundraisers and collecting donations. Monetary donations and donations of new/gently used books will be given to The Children’s Book Bank. School supplies may be donated to, but not limited to, the following organizations: TDSB Backpack and School Supplies Drive, local schools, The Salvation Army, Toronto Cares, and Covenant House Toronto.
- 2.2 Pledge for Pages will enhance the educational, recreational, social, or cultural environment of the University of Toronto Scarborough by:
 - 2.2.1 Educating students on the existing poor literacy rates in Canadian youth as well as their physical, psychological, economic, and social impacts on children.
 - 2.2.2 Spreading awareness about the barriers and inequalities that low and middle-income households face when accessing literacy aids.
 - 2.2.3 Providing students with the chance to socialize, participate, and volunteer at fundraising events and workshops.
 - 2.2.4 Provide students with the opportunity for benevolence and to directly serve their local community through charitable work.
- 2.3 Pledge for Pages fundamentally serves a non-profit function within the University of Toronto Scarborough, and will not engage in activities that are essentially commercial in nature.

- 2.4 Pledge for Pages operates as an independent entity working within the University of Toronto Scarborough community subject to the values and policies of the University.

Article III: Membership

- 3.1 Membership in Pledge for Pages is open to all students, staff, faculty and alumni of the University of Toronto Scarborough.
- 3.2 The term of membership for Pledge for Pages will be from September 1 – August 31 each year.

Article IV: Executives

- 4.1 The executives of the organization shall include: President (1), Vice-President (1), Director of Finance (1), Secretary (1), Director of Marketing and Communications (2), Director of Events and Fundraising (2)
- 4.2 The broad responsibilities of each executive position are as follows:
 - 4.2.1 The President is the official spokesperson of the organization and provides direction for all components of the organization in a manner consistent with the organization's constitution and policies. They prepare an agenda and lead all executive and general member meetings and communicate with specified external organizations in Article 2.1 on a frequent basis.
 - 4.2.2 The Vice President assumes the duties of the President in their absence and supports other executive positions. They ensure activities of the club comply with policies of the University of Toronto and coordinate organizational recruitment efforts. They assist the President in maintaining contact with the external organizations.
 - 4.2.3. The Director of Finance oversees all club finances including but not limited to: fundraising profits, donations, event expenses, etc. They ensure that adequate budget and financial controls are regulated and monitor expenses for events/projects approved by the executive team.

4.2.4. The Secretary maintains a list of group members and the appropriate contact list, membership numbers, records notes, and motions for meetings, and sends reminders regarding upcoming executive club meetings, general club meetings, fundraising events, and awareness campaigns.

4.2.5. The Director of Events and Fundraising works closely with the executive team to develop and coordinate all fundraising and awareness events and workshops. They are responsible for proposing budgets for their event ideas and overseeing said events from start to finish as per the executive team's approval.

4.2.6. The Director of Marketing and Communications is responsible for managing Pledge For Pages' social media/internet platforms by setting timelines for posts and documenting Pledge for Pages' events on these pages. They must create digital content for Pledge for Pages' social media that promotes Pledge for Pages by advertising upcoming events and workshops.

- 4.3 Only student members of the organization may hold executive positions.
- 4.4 The executive positions collectively will form a committee that acts as the primary steward of the organization.
- 4.5 This committee is collectively responsible for the day-to-day decision making of the organization including but not limited to monitoring finances, event planning and execution, member services, and advocating on behalf of members to Administration and student government.
- 4.6 This committee cannot make amendments to the constitution without the approval of all Executive members.
- 4.7 Following their hiring, the term of each executive will last from September 1 to August 1.
- 4.8 Any executive of the organization may resign, provided that such resignation is made in writing and delivered to the President. Unless any such resignation is, by its terms, effective on a later date, it shall be effective on delivery to the President, and no ratification by the organization shall be required to make the resignation official.

- 4.9 Any vacancy of executives shall be filled by the President or designate of the organization until such a time where a by-election is held, a permanent appointment occurs, or a hiring process is conducted.
- 4.10 If the President resigns, notice of such resignation must be submitted in writing and delivered to the executive committee at a valid executive meeting. Unless any such resignation is, by its terms, effective on a later date, it shall be effective on delivery to the executive committee, and no ratification by the organization shall be required to make the resignation official.
- 4.11 Any vacancy of the President shall be filled by another executive committee member appointed by a simple and clear majority of the executive committee until such a time where a by-election is held, a permanent appointment occurs, or a hiring process is conducted.

Article V: Removal of Members and Executives

- 5.1 The process for removing a member or executive may be initiated when two-thirds of the executive committee investigates a complaint determines that:
- 5.1.1 A member or executive has engaged in unlawful actions or activities;
 - 5.1.2 A member or executive has violated the constitution;
 - 5.1.3 A member or executive has violated University of Toronto policies, procedures, or guidelines;
 - 5.1.4 A member or executive has violated the rights of a fellow member;
 - 5.1.5 A member or executive has not fulfilled their organizational responsibilities;
 - 5.1.6 Other criteria deemed to be appropriate by the Executive Committee in consultation with and approved by a majority of the general membership.
- 5.2 The process for removing a member or executive may also be initiated when:
- 5.2.1 A petition calling for a vote and bearing the signatures of a majority of the general membership is submitted to any member of the executive.

5.2.2 A motion for a removal vote is put forward by any member of the executive and passed by a two-thirds majority vote of the executives. The individual facing potential removal vote is entitled to vote on the motion if they are an executive or be given an opportunity to explain themselves if they are a non-executive general member.

5.3 The removal of members and executives will be facilitated by a three tier procedure which operates as follows:

5.3.1 First Tier:

- The executive or member will be warned both verbally and in writing that their behavior constitutes grounds for removal from the organization and that it should cease effective immediately.

5.3.2 Second Tier:

- Initiated because the member or executive has violated section 5.1 after receiving a first tier warning relative to a particular action or behavior.
- The Vice President or President will be responsible for contacting the executive or member and facilitating training or suggesting best practices on how to correct the issues of concern.
- The Vice President or President must address all complaints in writing by formulating an action plan and timeline to correct any issues involving executives or members within fourteen (14) calendar days.
- The executive or member accused of violating section 5.1 will be given fourteen (14) calendar days from receiving the Vice President or President's written response to demonstrate progress or correction of behavior.

5.3.3 Third tier:

- Initiated because the member or executive has violated section 5.1 after receiving second tier warning relative to a particular action or behavior.
- The removal vote must take place at a valid Executive meeting of the membership. A representative supporting the motion for removal and the executive or member facing removal (or an individual they designate), may speak for up to five minutes each.
- The removal of an executive or member requires a 2/3 majority vote of all of the executives present at a valid general meeting (including executives). The executive or member facing removal is entitled to vote on the motion.

Article VI: Finances

- 6.1 The funds of the organization shall be expended pursuant to the operating budget approved by the general membership at a valid general meeting.
- 6.2 Notwithstanding section 6.1, the executive committee may not approve any unbudgeted expenditure of the organization's funds above $100.00 without the approval of the general members at a valid general meeting.
- 6.3 All Budgets shall be prepared by the Director of Finance in accordance with the organization's priorities as determined by the executive committee in consultation with general members at a valid general meeting.
- 6.4 The Director of Finance shall present a proposed operating budget for the next fiscal year to the general membership for its consideration at the final general meeting.
- 6.5 The operating budget shall be the major budget for the fiscal year and provide for all expenditures of the organization for the subsequent year.
- 6.6 The operating budget shall be approved by a majority vote of the general members present and voting at a valid general meeting.
- 6.7 The banking business of the organization, or any part thereof, shall be transacted with such bank, trust company or other firm or body corporate as the Executive may designate, appoint or authorize from time to time and all such banking business, or any part thereof, shall be transacted on the organization's behalf by one or more Officers or other persons as the Executive may designate, direct or authorize from time to time and to the extent thereby provided.
- 6.8 The President, Vice President, and Director of Finance shall be the sole signing authorities of banking instruments for the organization.
- 6.9 Pledge for Pages will ensure that proper and accurate financial records are maintained and passed on to incoming executives following each year's elections.

- 6.10 Pledge for Pages will accept full financial and production responsibility for all activities it sponsors, plans, or executes.

Article VII: General Meetings

- 7.1 The purpose of General Meetings is to provide a forum for executives to overview the activities of the organization and solicit feedback from members, to engage in policy-making, to propose amendments to the constitution, and to report on the financial status of the organization.
- 7.2 General meetings will be facilitated by the President and Vice-President. The President and Vice-President shall be responsible for:
- 7.2.1 Formulating and distributing an agenda for each meeting no later than two (2) days before the meeting;

- 7.8 All executives are expected to make brief progress reports on their activities at every general meeting.

- 7.9 Minutes of all general meetings must be recorded and maintained for reference purposes.
- 7.10 Members must contact the President or Vice-President a minimum of 48 hours before a general meeting to inform them of new business they wish to discuss. The President will then add the discussion item to the agenda.
- 7.11 Each member of the organization shall be entitled to one (1) vote at a general meeting.
- 7.12 Any question at a valid general meeting shall be decided by a show of hands.
- 7.13 Whenever a vote by show of hands occurs, a declaration by the chairperson that the vote upon the question has been carried, carried by a particular majority, or failed shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.
- 7.14 In case of an equality of votes at a valid general meeting, the Chairperson of the meeting shall have the deciding vote.
- 7.15 The Chairperson presiding over a meeting of members may, with the consent of the majority of members, decide to adjourn these meetings from time to time.

Article VIII: Executive Meetings

- 8.1 The purpose of executive meetings is to provide a forum for the organization's executives to discuss and make decisions on day-to-day matters affecting the organization.
- 8.2 Executive meetings will be facilitated by the President and Vice President of the organization. The President and Vice President shall be responsible for:
 - 8.2.1 Formulating and distributing an agenda for each meeting;
 - 8.2.2 Ensuring appropriate conduct and leading the meeting in an efficient, reasonable manner;
 - 8.2.3 Moderating the discussion at meetings according to the agenda;
- 8.3 There shall be a minimum of one (1) executive meeting held every two (2) weeks during the period September 1 to April 30 unless otherwise specified by the President or Vice President. The date of each subsequent executive meeting will be confirmed at the preceding meeting and will be reiterated to

- executives via email a minimum of two (2) calendar days prior to the meeting.
- 8.4 The frequency of executive meetings occurring between May 1 and August 31 will be left to the discretion of the executive committee.
 - 8.5 Executive meetings may be called to order by the President and Vice-President or through a petition signed by three (3) executive members.
 - 8.6 Executive meetings are restricted to executive members only. Quorum will be established by the presence of a simple and clear majority of the total executives for the organization.
 - 8.7 Minutes of all executive meetings must be recorded by the Secretary and maintained for reference purposes.
 - 8.8 Executives must notify the President or Vice-President a minimum of six (6) hours before an executive meeting to inform them of new business they wish to discuss. The President or Vice President will then add the discussion item to the agenda.
 - 8.9 Each executive member of the organization shall be entitled to one (1) vote at a valid executive meeting.
 - 8.10 Any question at an Executive Meeting shall be decided by a show of hands.
 - 8.11 Whenever a vote by show of hands occurs, a declaration by the President or Vice President that the vote has been carried, carried by a particular majority, or failed shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.
 - 8.12 In case of an equality of votes at an Executive Meeting, the motion will be recorded as having failed.
 - 8.13 The President or Vice President may, with the consent of the majority of executives, decide to adjourn these meetings from time to time.

Article IX: Emergency Meetings

- 9.1 Emergency meetings can be called for extenuating or unforeseen circumstances that may arise from time to time.
- 9.2 These meetings must abide by the respective rules outlined in sections VII and VIII depending on the nature of the meeting.

- 9.3 Notice of these meetings must be provided a minimum of 24 hours in advance through email.
- 9.4 Less notice for emergency meetings may be provided at the discretion of the President in agreement with a minimum of five (5) general members.

Article X: Executive Membership Application

- 10.1 Following the founding year of the club (2023), hiring for the Director of Finance, Secretary, and Directors of Marketing and Communication, and Directors of Events and Fundraising will be held before September 30 each year. The previous President and Vice-President are responsible for this hiring process.
- 10.2 Prospective candidates must apply for their desired executive position through the online form created by the President or Vice President of that year. In addition to an appropriate CV, this online application can require additional documentation that showcases evidence of previous experience with the responsibilities of the executive position under review.
- 10.3 Candidates' applications are to be screened by the President and Vice President from the previous year upon which their qualifications will be assessed given the outlined role of the executive position.
- 10.4 Candidates will be notified via email that their application has been received.
- 10.5 Upon review by the President and Vice-President, candidates that are deemed qualified for the executive position must attend an interview to discuss their qualifications and interest in the club further.
- 10.6 Both the President and Vice-President must agree that a candidate is qualified and the most appropriate choice for the executive position upon which they will be hired for that academic year.
- 10.7 Following the founding year (2023), the role of Vice President will be appointed each year by the President based on the same application and interview process as the other executive positions.
- 10.8 Unless forfeited or a failure to satisfy the presidential role is exhibited and called into action via Article V, the Presidential role is ongoing, valid up until the current President's graduation from UTSC.

- 10.9 Future Presidents will be appointed by the previous president through the same application and interview process as the other executive positions.

Article XI: Amendments

- 11.1 The organization may make, amend or repeal the constitution or certain sections therein.
- 11.2 Notice of a meeting called to consider such a resolution shall be given as follows:
- 11.2.1 Notice of the full text of the proposed constitutional amendment shall be given to each member at least fourteen (14) days prior to the date of the meeting called to consider the change;
 - 11.2.2 A summary of the rationale for the proposed amendment shall be given to each member at least fourteen (14) days prior to the date of the meeting called to consider the change.
- 11.3 Amendments to the constitution require the approval of two-thirds of the members present at a valid general meeting (a general meeting that has achieved quorum).
- 11.4 The executive membership must have the final say on amendments to the constitution.

Article XII: Transition

- 12.1 All outgoing executives are required to transfer all organizational resources used relative to a particular role over the course of the preceding year to new executives upon leaving the position.
- 12.2 All outgoing executives are responsible for providing a detailed report to incoming executives that stipulates the status of ongoing projects in their portfolio and evaluations of previous projects and programs that they lead.

Article XIII: Emergency Powers

- 13.1 In the case of extenuating circumstances, the executive shall be afforded the ability to act without direction from the organization's members.
- 13.2 An extenuating circumstance is defined as any instance that may jeopardize the immediate functioning of the organization including but not limited to: executive vacancies, unexpected cancellations, removal from position, or lack of response from members.

- 13.3 Emergency powers may only be used for such a period of time as is needed to address an extenuating circumstance.
- 13.4 General members have the ability to remove emergency powers where appropriate through submission of a signed petition from at least 10% of the entire general membership.

Article XIV: Food Handling on Campus

- 14.1 Pledge for Pages will conform to Provincial and Municipal Health Regulations when events which include the sale and/or service of food products are held on the University of Toronto Scarborough campus.

Article XV: Precedence of University Policies

- 15.1 Pledge for Pages will abide by all pertinent University of Toronto policies, procedures, and guidelines. Where the University's policies, procedures, and guidelines conflict with those of , the University's policies, procedures, and guidelines will take precedence.

Article XVI: Legal Liability

- 16.1 The University of Toronto Scarborough does not endorse P4P's beliefs or philosophy nor does it assume legal liability for the group's activities on or off campus.

Article XVII: Banking

- 17.1 Pledge for Pages agrees to provide the name of the bank, the branch number and address, transit number, bank account number, and a list of all signing officers for all bank accounts opened in the organization's name to the Department of Student Life, University of Toronto Scarborough.

Appendix A: Meeting Rules of Order

I. Call to Order

- 1. The President or Vice President may call the meeting to order only if a quorum of executives and non-executive general members is present in person. If a quorum does not exist, the meeting is not qualified to conduct business. A general member may not appear by proxy or mail ballot.

2. The meeting must be open to all applicable general members. General members must receive notice of the meeting in accordance with the constitution.

II. Review of the Agenda

1. The first draft of the agenda is prepared by the President or Vice President prior to the meeting. Agenda items should ordinarily appear in the order set forth in these rules of order.

2. The agenda belongs to all general members. The agenda may be modified only by a majority vote. This power should only be used when necessary as proper functioning of meetings and the organization requires advance planning.

3. When possible, changes to the agenda should be done by acquiescence of all general members. Formal voting on the agenda is only necessary where it appears to the President or Vice President that there is a disagreement.

III. Approval of Previous Minutes

1. The minutes need not be read aloud but they should be entered into the organization's official minute ledger upon approval by the general membership.

2. The minutes are prepared by either the secretary or some other individual appointed by the general membership to act as recording secretary. Any general member may suggest changes to the minutes before the general membership adopts them. The suggested changes should be set forth in the minutes for the record, and then the general membership should adopt or reject such changes.

3. Minutes should state precisely each motion considered by the general membership, and identify the general members voting in favor, against, or abstaining, and whether the motion was carried. Minutes need not reflect the comments made except in those instances when the member desires to make his/her comments recorded.

4. When possible, changes to the minutes and adoption of the minutes should be done by acquiescence of all general members. Formal voting on the minutes is only necessary where it appears to the Chairperson that there is a disagreement.

IV. Executive Reports

1. Executives may report their findings or recommendations to the general membership at this point of the agenda.

2. The full report should be presented and then general members, in turn, may ask questions or comment. It is not appropriate to make motions or discuss items of business during this portion of the meeting.

3. This time should also be used for any presentations to be made to the general membership.

V. Open Forum

1. It is the custom and practice of most organizations to allow general members an open forum to ask questions and speak about their concerns to an executive after a report has been provided.
2. Strict time limitations should be imposed by the President or Vice President and these limitations must be enforced. Each general member should address the President or Vice President regarding an issue and must speak courteously and to the point.

VI. Old and New Business

1. All items that were tabled during previous meetings must be revisited during the business portion of the agenda occurring after executive reports.
2. The general membership may vote to postpone consideration of any old business or it may remove any item from consideration.
3. Except in the case of emergency business, all new items of business are heard only after all of the old items have been addressed by the general membership.
4. All business must be conducted in the form of motions or resolutions adopted by a vote of the general membership.

VII. Motions and Deliberations

1. When an item of business is to be discussed, the President or Vice President announces the item to be discussed and opens the floor to discussion.
2. No general member may speak until recognized by the President or Vice President. No general member may interrupt the speaker who has the floor.
3. The President or Vice President may impose reasonable time limitations. All time limitations must be uniformly imposed upon all of the general members. The speaker shall be given a one-minute warning before time runs out. By vote of a majority of the general membership, time limits may be extended.
4. The President or Vice President is to recognize each general member in turn. Discussion shall be limited to the item of business at hand, and the President or Vice President shall have the authority to take the floor from a speaker who does not limit discussion to the item of business at hand.
5. No general member may speak to an issue for a second time until all other general members have had the opportunity to speak to it for the first time. Likewise, no general member may speak to an issue for a third time until all other general members have had the opportunity to speak to it for a second time.

6. When it appears to the President or Vice President that all general members have had the opportunity to fully discuss the matter at hand, the President or Vice President should announce that the item of business is ready for a vote.

11 VIII. Voting

1. There are 3 basic motions for each item of business:

- A motion to adopt a specific action by the board.
- A motion to postpone the item to another meeting (including fact-finding assignments to a person or committee).
- A motion to remove an item from consideration

2. The general membership is limited to discussing one item of business at a time, but there are no limits to the number of motions that may be considered as to how to dispose of that item of business.

3. After the general membership has had the opportunity to discuss each motion presented for consideration, the President or Vice President will call each motion presented to a vote.

4. The fact that a motion has been adopted or failed does not prevent the item of business from being added to the agenda in the future and all motions may be reconsidered at any time by the general membership.
