

Constitution of “Black Future Lawyers UTM Chapter”

1. Name

The official name of this recognized campus group is “Black Future Lawyers University of Toronto Mississauga Chapter”

The acronym or abbreviation of this group is: BFL UTM

2. Purpose and Objectives

Black Future Lawyers UTM (BFL UTM) is a student-led initiative for Black undergraduate students at the University of Toronto Mississauga campus (“UTM”). BFL UTM’s intention is to organize and advocate for the betterment of Black students who aspire to attend law school.

Vision: Every single Black student that has come into contact with BFL UTM has increased awareness for Law Schools as well as provided a safe space for them to build community with other Black aspiring law students.

Mission: To create a platform for Black individuals aspiring to showcase their skills in the field of Law. As well as provide more educational opportunities such as LSAT workshops, financial advice regarding picking law schools, and events to provide social networking opportunities.

BFL UTM is an undergraduate chapter of BFL Central, a program run by the University of Toronto Faculty of Law and Black Law Students’ Association (“BLSA UofT”). We acknowledge that, as Black students, our academic experience is closely linked to the many systemic barriers that students face in academia, and will attempt to address these issues, while also providing a space for critical thought.

The objective of BFL UTM is to provide Black students at UTM with an opportunity to be a part of a community of people who not only aspire to become lawyers, but also aspire to give back and spread awareness of this initiative. The main purpose of BFL UTM is to provide support and assistance for Black pre-law students by working with BFL Central, the Faculty of Law and other associated departments. BFL UTM will host workshops, events and socials that will meet the clubs stated vision, mission, and objectives.

3. Membership

Membership to the group is open to all the University of Toronto members (students, staff, faculty and alumni).

U of T members are permitted to run, nominate, and vote in elections and constitutional amendments. The group is open to non-U of T members. 5. Elections

The executive committee shall strike the Elections Committee and appoint one (1) Senior Election Officer (SEO) from the general members on the committee to conduct and hold elections in March. All members of the Elections Committee shall be non-biased in the results of the election and shall be required to disclose any and all conflicts of interest in the election.

The SEO Election Officer shall accept nominations only from group members that are also registered U of T members (staff, faculty, students and alumni) for candidacy of executive positions from the general membership before the beginning of March. Candidates have to be members in good standing and be part of the group for at least one month prior to the nomination period.

The SEO shall select three (3) election dates before March 30th for the voting period. These dates will be announced in a minimum of two (2) weeks prior to elections dates and must fall on weekdays.

The SEO shall provide each U of T member with a paper ballot on the voting dates and ask the member to place their ballot in an enclosed box.

In preparation for a tie, the SEO shall select an executive from amongst the executive committee, to cast their ballot and seal it in an envelope. In the event of a tie for an executive position, one of the two Scrutinizers shall break the seal and count the ballot in order to break the tie.

After the election is over, the SEO shall count the ballots. The candidate with the most votes shall be elected to the position. The SEO shall submit a report of the results of the elections to the Executive Committee and general members.

Registered U of T members may not vote by proxy. Non-U of T members may not nominate or vote in elections.

Only U of T members who have paid any applicable membership fees and have been a member in good standing for 30 days prior to election dates are eligible for voting.

Term of executive positions shall be from May 1st to April 30th.

6. Finances

The Treasurer shall keep records of all income and expenses. The Treasurer shall present the group's financial health at the annual general meetings. The Executive Committee will vote on expenditures of over $100.00 by majority vote at an executive meeting.

The group's executive or members may not engage in activities that are essentially commercial in nature. This is not intended to preclude the collection of membership fees to cover the expenses of the group, or of charges for specific activities, programs or events, or to prohibit groups from engaging in legitimate fundraising. However, the group will not have as a major activity a function that makes it an on-campus part of a commercial organization, will not provide services and goods at a profit when that profit is used for purposes other than those of the organization, and will not pay salaries to some or all of its officers.

7. Meetings

A) Annual General Meetings (AGMs):

The group shall hold general meetings at least twice per year, i.e. once per academic term.

The Executive Committee will announce these dates two (2) weeks prior to holding the meetings. These meetings are intended to go over the group's annual activity plan, financial health and propose or vote on constitutional amendments, if any. Motions will require 2/3 majority of registered members in attendance for a vote to be cast. The motion with the most votes will be passed.

b) Executive Meetings:

The executive committee shall meet on a monthly basis where date and times are to be set by an executive. The quorum of executive meetings shall be 50%+1 of executives.

8. Amendments

Any registered U of T members may propose and vote on amendments to this constitution. The Executive Committee will administer the process of having amendments discussed at general meetings.

Constitutional amendments shall require a 2/3 majority to be passed at Annual General Meetings by registered U of T members in attendance.

The Executive Committee shall formally adopt the new constitution and submit the revised constitution to the respective University offices (i.e. Centre for Student Engagement, The University of Toronto Mississauga Students' Union, etc) within two (2) weeks of its approval by general members.
