

Constitution of “A Better Day Tomorrow”

1. Name

The official name of this recognized campus group is “A Better Day Tomorrow”

The acronym or abbreviation of this group is: ABDT

2. Purpose and Objectives

The purpose, objectives, mission and/or mandate of organization is outlined here:

The purpose of A Better Day Tomorrow (ABDT) is to raise public awareness about the homelessness situation in Canada. To give some insight into this rising issue, we would like to provide you with a statistic on the number of homeless individuals in Toronto alone. According to Homesfirst organization (2022) around 8,500 people in Toronto are experiencing homelessness on any given day. The mission of ABDT is to bring awareness to the homeless situation in Canada, and provide resources to those in that situation. We plan to achieve this by collaborating with non-profit organizations such as Youth Without Shelter, Toronto Alliance to End Homelessness (TAEH), Salvation Army, and local shelters. This will be through our extraordinary outreach and networking skills that we have attained throughout our undergraduate years. As well as, seminars and tabling to raise awareness about this situation. To further advocate and recruit members for our club, we will put up posters and have events to raise awareness. Furthermore, we plan to take mini field trips to areas experiencing high rates of homelessness such as areas in downtown Toronto. In these mini field trips, we will meet with shelters around the GTA and drop off little care packages with goods and hygiene products. As well, this will allow group members to speak directly to shelter staff, and different organizations to increase awareness about this situation.
