

Constitution of “The Association of Palestinian Students”

1. Name

The official name of this recognized campus group is “The Association of Palestinian Students”

The acronym or abbreviation of this group is: APS

2. Purpose and Objectives

The purpose, objectives, mission and/or mandate of organization is outlined here: To spread awareness about the Palestinian cause, embrace the Palestinian culture and educate students through events, workshops and seminars.

3. Membership

Membership to the group is open to all the University of Toronto members (students, staff, faculty and alumni).

U of T members are permitted to run, nominate, and vote in elections and constitutional amendments. The group is open to non-U of T members. However, these members do not hold the aforementioned rights. Members must register with a designated executive by submitting their full name and a valid email address.

The membership fee will be $0 per year.

Any member of the club may apply for a refund within one (1) month of becoming a member. No refunds are permitted 30 days after the election periods.

For recognition by the University of Toronto Mississauga Students’ Union (UTMSU), the group must maintain a minimum of 30 members, a total of 51% of membership are UTMSU members. The group must also maintain recognition from the Centre for Student Engagement. These requirements are subject to change and should be checked with UTMSU annually to ensure qualifications are met.

4. Executive List and Duties

The executive committee shall be comprised of ten (10) elected officers. These include a President, Vice President, Finance Director, Executive Director, Events Coordinator, Director of Communications, Researcher, Marketing Director and Social Media Manager.

The President shall:

- Oversee the operations, management and success of the group
- Be responsible for any official correspondence for the group
- Be the spokesperson for the group
- Hold signing officer authority along with the Finance Director for financial purposes
- Preside over board meetings as well as general meetings

- Ensure transition of office to the future Executives

The Vice-President shall:

- Assume duties of the President in his/her absence
- Oversee the various committees
- Ensure that all the activities of the club meet regulations and policies of the University of Toronto
- Coordinate organizational recruitment efforts

The Executive Director shall:

- Make a list of all registered members
- Maintain the web sites and member contact list
- Record notes and motions for meetings
- Notify all members of meetings
- Aid the Vice President and President in overseeing the various committees

The Financial Director shall:

- Record all financial transactions of the group
- Hold signing officer authority along with the President for financial purposes
- Maintain a budget of income and expenses along with receipts
- Advise members on financial position of the group
- Prepare an annual budget for the group as well as budgets for specific events

The Events Coordinators shall:

- Oversee the operations, management and success of events
- Brainstorm events for the clubs
- Attend all initiative collaboration meetings
- Create budget breakdowns for each event, and keep track of receipts for each event
- Be responsible for anything that must be bought for events

The Director of Communications shall:

- Be responsible for any official correspondence for the group
- Give the President and Vice-President weekly communications recaps
- Prepare any official communications presentations for board meetings, general meetings, and preliminary meetings with collaborators

The Marketing Director shall:

- Oversee the marketing for each event
- Collaborate with the Social Media Manager to create successful social media campaigns for the club
- Collaborate with the Social Media Manager to design event posters and social media graphics
- Be responsible for getting posters approved by the UTMSU and putting them up around campus
- Oversee any tabling initiatives around campus

The Researcher shall:

- Work with the President and Vice President to create statements for the club
- Review any organizations or speakers hosted on campus for anti-Palestinian Racism
- Notify the President of any anti-Palestinian rhetoric being showcased on campus
- Prepare short presentations before

every executive meeting, recapping Palestinian news stories

Page 2 of 4

The Social Media Manager shall:

- Be responsible for all media hosted on the group's Instagram and Twitter pages ● Work with the Researcher and Marketing Director to create graphics and social media campaigns designed to educate around Palestinian causes
- Work with the Director of Communications and the Marketing Director to create graphics promoting our events
- Consistently repost Palestinian news and community events on our Instagram and Twitter pages

The Content Creator shall:

- Develop and share compelling content that highlights Palestinian culture, history and current events
- Be responsible for crafting blog posts, creating videos, and managing social media updates to engage our members and raise awareness about our initiatives and events

The Graphic Designer shall:

- Be responsible for creating visually impactful designs that reflect Palestinian heritage and the club's mission
- Designing event flyers, social media visuals, and promotional materials that celebrate Palestinian culture and promote our events and campaigns

Termination of Executives or General Members:

Any member of the club who commits an act negatively affecting the interests of the club and its members, including non-disclosure of a significant or continuing conflict of interest, may be given notice of removal.

The member up for removal shall have the right to defend his/her actions.

A two-thirds majority vote of the current members present in favor of removal is required. The member must have the right to an appeal before the general membership, and the majority vote of the general membership will have the final say on the matter.

The member will be removed from the club's membership and will lose any privileges associated with being a member of the club.

Executive members are subject to the same termination or impeachment process and, as determined by the vote, may lose their executive position along with their membership to the group.

5. Elections

The executive committee shall strike the Elections Committee and appoint one (1) Senior Election Officer (SEO) from the general members on the committee to conduct and hold elections in March. All members of the Elections Committee shall be non-biased in the results of the election and shall be required to disclose any and all conflicts of interest in the election.

The SEO Election Officer shall accept nominations only from group members that are also registered U of T members (staff, faculty, students and alumni) for candidacy of executive positions from the general membership before the beginning of March. Candidates have to be members in good standing and be part of the group for at least one month prior to the nomination period.

The SEO shall select three (3) election dates before March 30th for the voting period. These dates will be announced in a minimum of two (2) weeks prior to elections dates and must fall on weekdays.

The SEO shall provide each U of T member with a paper ballot on the voting dates and ask the member to place their ballot in an enclosed box.

In preparation for a tie, the SEO shall select an executive from amongst the executive committee, to cast their ballot and seal it in an envelope. In the event of a tie for an executive position, one of the two Scrutinizers shall break the seal and count the ballot in order to break the tie.

Page 3 of 4

After the election is over, the SEO shall count the ballots. The candidate with the most votes shall be elected to the position. The SEO shall submit a report of the results of the elections to the Executive Committee and general members.

Registered U of T members may not vote by proxy. Non-U of T members may not nominate or vote in elections.

Only U of T members who have paid any applicable membership fees and have been a member in good standing for 30 days prior to election dates are eligible for voting.

Term of executive positions shall be from May 1st to April 30th.

6. Finances

The Finance Director shall keep records of all income and expenses. The Finance Director shall present the group's financial health at the annual general meetings. The Executive Committee will vote on expenditures of over $100.00 by majority vote at an executive meeting.

The group's executive or members may not engage in activities that are essentially commercial in nature. This is not intended to preclude the collection of membership fees to cover the expenses of the group, or of charges for specific activities, programs or events, or to prohibit groups from engaging in legitimate fundraising. However, the group will not have as a major activity a function that makes it an on-campus part of a commercial organization, will not provide services and goods at a profit when that profit is used for purposes other than those of the organization, and will not pay salaries to some or all of its officers.

7. Meetings

A) Annual General Meetings (AGMs):

The group shall hold general meetings at least twice per year, i.e. once per academic term.

The Executive Committee will announce these dates two (2) weeks prior to holding the meetings. These meetings are intended to go over the group's annual activity plan, financial health and propose or vote on constitutional amendments, if any. Motions will require 2/3 majority of registered members in attendance for a vote to be cast. The motion with the most votes will be passed.

b) Executive Meetings:

The executive committee shall meet on a weekly basis where date and times are to be set by an executive. The quorum of executive meetings shall be 50%+1 of executives. Executives are permitted to miss four (4) Executive Meetings with or without excuse before they risk termination and losing their executive position in the group.

8. Amendments

Any registered U of T members may propose and vote on amendments to this constitution. The Executive Committee will administer the process of having amendments discussed at general meetings.

Page 4 of 4

Constitutional amendments shall require a 2/3 majority to be passed at Annual General Meetings by registered U of T members in attendance.

The Executive Committee shall formally adopt the new constitution and submit the revised constitution to the respective University offices (i.e. Centre for Student Engagement, The University of Toronto Mississauga Students' Union, etc) within two (2) weeks of its approval by general members.

