

Group Constitution

Constitution of The University of Toronto Mississauga Academic Trivia Club

1. Name

The official name of this recognized campus group is The University of Toronto Mississauga Academic Trivia Club

The acronym or abbreviation of this group is: UTMATC

2. Purpose and Objectives

The Academic Trivia Club at UTM aims to foster a dynamic and inclusive environment where students passionate about trivia can thrive. Our mission is to promote intellectual engagement and teamwork through regular meetings, practices, and participation in tournaments. Our goals include attending regional competitions, hosting trivia events on campus to engage the broader student body, and collaborating with other clubs on campus. During the school year, we will meet a minimum of one day a week, with additional practices if necessary. Through a blend of weekly meetups, tournament participation and outreach initiatives, we will cultivate a vibrant trivia culture that enriches the university experience for all involved, creating and a sense of belonging.

3. Membership

Membership to the group is open to all the University of Toronto members

U of T members are permitted to run, nominate, and vote in elections and constitutional amendments. The group is open to non-U of T members. However, these members do not hold the aforementioned rights. Members must register with a designated executive by submitting their full name and a valid email address.

There is no membership fee.

4. Executive List and Duties

The executive committee shall be comprised of four (4) elected officers. These include a President, Treasurer, Vice President, Secretary

The President shall:

- Oversee the operations, management and success of the group
- Be the spokesperson for the group
- Hold signing officer authority along with the Treasurer for financial purposes
- Preside over board meetings as well as general meetings
- Ensure transition of office to the future Executives
- Perform regular tasks involved in the day-to-day functions of the club, such as organizing practices and keeping track of what is read at the practices.
- Make a list of all registered members

The Vice-President shall:

- Assume duties of the President in his/her absence
- Assist the President in their duties when required to do so
- Ensure that all the activities of the club meet regulations and policies of the University of Toronto

- Coordinate organizational recruitment efforts
- Maintain the social media sites

The Secretary shall:

- Record notes and motions for meetings
- Notify all members of meetings
- Maintain the social media sites
- Handle official correspondence of the organization

The Treasurer shall:

- Record all financial transactions of the group
- Hold signing officer authority along with the President for financial purposes
- Maintain a budget of income and expenses along with receipts
- Advise members on financial position of the group
- Prepare an annual budget for the group as well as budgets for specific events

The group may appoint Directors or Coordinators for various committees such as social committee, publicity committee, and so on; however, such positions do not hold executive decision making authority.

Termination of Executives or General Members:

Any member of the club who commits an act negatively affecting the interests of the club and its members, including non-disclosure of a significant or continuing conflict of interest, may be given notice of removal.

The member up for removal shall have the right to defend his/her actions.

A two-thirds majority vote of the current members present in favor of removal is required. The member must have the right to an appeal before the general membership, and the majority vote of the general membership will have the final say on the matter.

The member will be removed from the club's membership and will lose any privileges associated with being a member of the club.

Executive members are subject to the same termination or impeachment process and, as determined by the vote, may lose their executive position along with their membership to the group.

5. Elections

The executive committee shall strike the Elections Committee and appoint one (1) Senior Election Officer (SEO) and two (2) Scrutinizers from the general members on the committee to conduct and hold elections in March. All members of the Elections Committee shall be non-biased in the results of the election and shall be required to disclose any and all conflicts of interest in the election.

The SEO Election Officer shall accept nominations only from group members that are also registered U of T members for candidacy of executive positions from the general membership before the beginning of March. Candidates have to be members in good standing and be part of the group for at least one month prior to the nomination period.

The SEO shall select an election date before March 30th for the voting period. This dates will be announced in a minimum of one (1) week prior to elections dates and must fall on a weekday.

The SEO and Scrutinizers shall provide each U of T member with a paper ballot on the voting dates and ask the member to place their ballot in an enclosed box.

In preparation for a tie, the SEO shall select an executive from amongst the executive committee, to cast their ballot and seal it in an envelope. In the event of a tie for an executive position, one of the two Scrutinizers shall break the seal and count the ballot in order to break the tie.

After the election is over, the SEO and Scrutinizers shall count the ballots. The candidate with the most votes shall be elected to the position. The SEO and Scrutinizers shall submit a report of the results of the elections to the Executive Committee and general members.

Registered U of T members may vote by proxy, the method of which will be at the discretion of the SEO. Non-U of T members may not nominate or vote in elections.

Only U of T members who have been a member in good standing for 30 days prior to election dates are eligible for voting.

Term of executive positions shall be from May 1st to April 30th.

6. Finances

The Treasurer shall keep records of all income and expenses. The Treasurer shall present the group's financial health at the annual general meetings. The Executive Committee will vote on expenditures of over $100.00 by majority vote at an executive meeting.

The group's executive or members may not engage in activities that are essentially commercial in nature. This is not intended to preclude the collection of membership fees to cover the expenses of the group, or of charges for specific activities, programs or events, or to prohibit groups from engaging in legitimate fundraising. However, the group will not have as a major activity a function that makes it an on-campus part of a commercial organization, will not provide services and goods at a profit when that profit is used for purposes other than those of the organization, and will not pay salaries to some or all of its officers.

7. Meetings

A) Annual General Meetings (AGMs):

The group shall hold general meetings at least twice per year

The Executive Committee will announce these dates two (2) weeks prior to holding the meetings. These meetings are intended to go over the group's annual activity plan, financial health and propose or vote on constitutional amendments, if any. Motions will require 2/3 majority of registered members in attendance for a vote to be cast. The motion with the most votes will be passed.

8. Amendments

Any registered U of T members may propose and vote on amendments to this constitution. The Executive Committee will administer the process of having amendments discussed at general meetings.

Constitutional amendments shall require a 2/3 majority to be passed at Annual General Meetings by registered U of T members in attendance.

The Executive Committee shall formally adopt the new constitution and submit the revised constitution to the respective University offices (i.e. Centre for Student Engagement, The University of Toronto Mississauga Students' Union, etc) within two (2) weeks of its approval by general members.
