

Constitution of Campus Church

Updated as of August 19, 2025

Article I: Name and Purpose

1.1 The official name of the Campus Group will be Campus Church

1.2 The campus group may be referred to by the acronym CC

1.3 The purpose, objectives, mission and/or mandate of the organization is to

- Provide A Church FOR students BY students
- Provide a place to believe, belong and be loved
- Provide a safe environment to practice beliefs and spiritual self-expression • Hold a Chapel service for students in the middle of the week
- Observe holy sacraments (ex. Communion)
- Cater to those students who work part-time jobs to pay for school and can't make it to a church service on a Sunday morning.
- Cater to the spiritual needs of students, staff and faculty
- Welcome and encourage students to come and observe - you don't have to be a Christian to come to chapel
- Nurture and develop the spiritual aspect of students' holistic well-being • Show exploring students and new Christians what a church service is like before they find one in the community as they graduate

The Campus Church will enhance the educational, recreational, social, or cultural environment of the University of Toronto Scarborough by:

- Nurture and develop the spiritual aspect of students' holistic well-being
- Provide a safe environment to practice beliefs and spiritual self-expression • Cater to the spiritual needs of students, staff and faculty

The student leaders, who plan, organize and execute Campus Church services: •

These students will learn valuable skills like being responsible over a spiritual community

- They will learn to be leaders of tomorrow as they graduate
- These students will take the skills they've learned to their home churches and to their community after graduation
- Will be challenged to live above reproach with accountability and integrity.

The Campus Church fundamentally serves a non-profit function within the University of Toronto Scarborough, and will not engage in activities that are essentially commercial in nature.

The Campus Church operates as an independent entity working within the University of Toronto Scarborough community subject to the values and policies of the University.
