

Constitution of “ PLLC ”

1. Name

The official name of this recognized campus group is “ Persian Students Association ”

The acronym or abbreviation of this group is: PSA

2. Purpose and Objectives

The purpose, objectives, mission and/or mandate of organization is outlined here:

Mission Statement

The Persian Student Association (PSA) aims to create a vibrant and inclusive community dedicated to the exploration, appreciation, and promotion of Persian language, literature, and culture. Our mission is to foster a deeper understanding of Persian heritage and its global significance while providing a supportive environment for language learning, literary analysis, and cultural exchange.

Vision

We envision a community where:

- The richness of Persian literature and culture inspires people across diverse backgrounds. Current Persian courses at UTM are advancing that approach.
- Students, scholars, and enthusiasts engage in meaningful discussions about classical and modern Persian works.
- Persian language learners feel empowered and confident in their journey toward fluency.

By connecting individuals with a shared passion for Persian, we aim to bridge cultures and celebrate the timeless relevance of Persian literature in today's world.

Objectives

1. Promote Persian Language Proficiency:
 - Host regular language workshops, conversation circles, and reading sessions for learners of all levels.
 - Offer guidance and resources for mastering reading, writing, speaking, and listening skills.
2. Foster Appreciation of Persian Literature:
 - Organize lectures, discussions, and analysis sessions on works by iconic Persian poets and writers such as Hafez, Rumi, Ferdowsi, Nizami, and Forough Farrokhzad.
 - Explore themes of love, mysticism, resistance, and identity across Persian literary traditions.
3. Cultural Exchange and Awareness:
 - Celebrate Persian cultural events like Shab-e-Yalda, Nowruz, and Mehregan, highlighting their historical and literary significance.
 - Partner with other cultural and literary clubs to create a platform for cross-cultural dialogue.
4. Provide Academic and Professional Development Opportunities:
 - Support members in their academic and professional pursuits through workshops, mentorship, and networking opportunities.
 - Encourage research and creative projects related to Persian language and literature.

5. Create a Welcoming Community:
 - Provide a safe and inclusive space where members can share ideas, ask questions, and collaborate.
 - Encourage participation from individuals of all linguistic and cultural backgrounds.

Activities and Programs

- Language Labs: Weekly sessions for practicing Persian through role-play, storytelling, and games.
- Literature Circles: Monthly discussions on selected works from Persian literature, led by students or guest speakers.
- Poetry Nights: An evening of reciting and reflecting on Persian poetry, both classical and contemporary.
- Cultural Celebrations: Events like Shab-e-Yalda gatherings, Nowruz festivals, and Persian film screenings.
- Writing Workshops: Opportunities to create and share original works in Persian, including essays, poems, and stories.
- Fāl-e-Hafez Sessions: Delve into the mystical world of Hafez's poetry for inspiration and reflection.

3. Membership

Membership to the group is open to all the University of Toronto members (students, staff, faculty and alumni).

U of T members are permitted to run, nominate, and vote in elections and constitutional amendments. The group is open to non-U of T members. However, these members do not hold the aforementioned rights. Members must register with a designated executive by submitting their full name and a valid email address.

The membership fee will be $ 0 per year.

Any member of the club may apply for a refund within one (1) month of becoming a member. No refunds are permitted 30 days after the election periods.

4. Executive List and Duties

The executive committee shall be comprised of four (4) elected officers. These include a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer

The President shall:

- Oversee the operations, management and success of the group
- Be the spokesperson for the group
- Hold signing officer authority along with the Treasurer for financial purposes
- Preside over board meetings as well as general meetings
- Ensure transition of office to the future Executives

Additional responsibilities may include: Plan events and activities

The Vice-President shall:

- Assume duties of the President in his/her absence
- Oversee the various committees
- Ensure that all the activities of the club meet regulations and policies of the University of Toronto
- Coordinate organizational recruitment efforts

Additional responsibilities may include: Help plan events and activities

The Secretary shall:

- Make a list of all registered members
- Maintain the web sites and member contact list
- Record notes and motions for meetings
- Notify all members of meetings
- Handle official correspondence of the organization

Additional responsibilities may include:

The Treasurer shall:

- Record all financial transactions of the group
- Hold signing officer authority along with the President for financial purposes
- Maintain a budget of income and expenses along with receipts
- Advise members on financial position of the group
- Prepare an annual budget for the group as well as budgets for specific events

Additional responsibilities may include:

The group may appoint Directors or Coordinators for various committees such as social committee, publicity committee, and so on; however, such positions do not hold executive decision making authority.

Termination of Executives or General Members:

Any member of the club who commits an act negatively affecting the interests of the club and its members, including non-disclosure of a significant or continuing conflict of interest, may be given notice of removal.

The member up for removal shall have the right to defend his/her actions.

A two-thirds majority vote of the current members present in favor of removal is required. The member must have the right to an appeal before the general membership, and the majority vote of the general membership will have the final say on the matter.

The member will be removed from the club's membership and will lose any privileges associated with being a member of the club.

Executive members are subject to the same termination or impeachment process and, as determined by the vote, may lose their executive position along with their membership to the group.

5. Elections

The executive committee shall strike the Elections Committee and appoint one (1) Senior Election Officer (SEO) from the general members on the committee to conduct and hold elections in March. All members of the Elections Committee shall be non-biased in the results of the election and shall be required to disclose any and all conflicts of interest in the election.

The SEO Election Officer shall accept nominations only from group members that are also registered U of T members (staff, faculty, students and alumni) for candidacy of executive positions from the general membership before the beginning of March. Candidates have to be members in good standing and be part of the group for at least one month prior to the nomination period.

The SEO shall select three (3) election dates before March 30th for the voting period. These dates will be announced in a minimum of two (2) weeks prior to elections dates and must fall on weekdays.

The SEO shall provide each U of T member with a paper ballot on the voting dates and ask the member to place their ballot in an enclosed box.

In preparation for a tie, the SEO shall select an executive from amongst the executive committee, to cast their ballot and seal it in an envelope. In the event of a tie for an executive position, one of the two Scrutinizers shall break the seal and count the ballot in order to break the tie.

After the election is over, the SEO shall count the ballots. The candidate with the most votes shall be elected to the position. The SEO shall submit a report of the results of the elections to the Executive Committee and general members.

Registered U of T members may not vote by proxy. Non-U of T members may not nominate or vote in elections.

Only U of T members who have paid any applicable membership fees and have been a member in good standing for 30 days prior to election dates are eligible for voting.

Term of executive positions shall be from May 1st to April 30th.

6. Finances

The Treasurer shall keep records of all income and expenses. The Treasurer shall present the group's financial health at the annual general meetings. The Executive Committee will vote on expenditures of over $100.00 by majority vote at an executive meeting.

The group's executive or members may not engage in activities that are essentially commercial in nature. This is not intended to preclude the collection of membership fees to cover the expenses of the group, or of charges for specific activities, programs or events, or to prohibit groups from engaging in legitimate fundraising. However, the group will not have as a major activity a function that makes it an on-campus part of a commercial organization, will not provide services and goods at a profit when that profit is used for purposes other than those of the organization, and will not pay salaries to some or all of its officers.

7. Meetings

A) Annual General Meetings (AGMs):

The group shall hold general meetings at least twice per year, i.e. once per academic term.

The Executive Committee will announce these dates two (2) weeks prior to holding the meetings. These meetings are intended to go over the group's annual activity plan, financial health and propose or vote on constitutional amendments, if any. Motions will require 2/3 majority of registered members in attendance for a vote to be cast. The motion with the most votes will be passed.

b) Executive Meetings:

The executive committee shall meet on a monthly basis where date and times are to be set by an executive. The quorum of executive meetings shall be 50%+1 of executives.

8. Amendments

Any registered U of T members may propose and vote on amendments to this constitution. The Executive Committee will administer the process of having amendments discussed at general meetings.

Constitutional amendments shall require a 2/3 majority to be passed at Annual General Meetings by registered U of T members in attendance.

The Executive Committee shall formally adopt the new constitution and submit the revised constitution to the respective University offices (i.e. Centre for Student Engagement, etc) within two (2) weeks of its approval by general members.
