- Engaged in any form of improper etiquette or acts deemed harmful to the club and its members.

5.2 Executives will decide the consequences for any member who commits any of the acts listed above.

5.3 If the President or VP violates any rules presented in the constitution, all executive and general members can vote towards their termination in a majority vote, featuring >50% of general members and at least 2/5 executives in favor.

6. Elections

6.1 All active members of the club are eligible to run and vote for executive positions with exception to the club President and Vice President.

6.2 The President and Vice President hold permanent roles within the club and are not subject to elections.

6.3 Once there is a vacancy in either the President or Vice President's role, the club will hold an election to fill these roles.

6.4 Executive roles besides the President and Vice president will be subject to elections and voted on by all members of the club.

6.5 The President and Vice President will select an Elections Committee Officer to organize and conduct an election within the club.

6.5.1 The President and Vice President reserve the right to reverie any candidates that will replace an executive role.

6.6 Elections will occur once per academic year and will occur on the first day of the year's Winter reading week to determine the following year's executives.

7. Finances

7.1 The Treasurer will keep financial records of all income and expenses. The Treasurer shall review the group's financial health every month during executive meetings.

7.2 The executive committee will vote on expenditures of over $100.00 by majority vote at an executive meeting.

7.3 No money will be collected in any attempt to make a commercial profit.

7.4 Any collection of expenses will not be required or imposed on any member of the club.

7.5 In the case that the club requires expenses for events and other related activities, executive members will vote on the expenditure of funds.

8. Meetings

8.1 Optional meetings including all members shall occur bi-weekly at an in-person setting, namely the RAWC Strength and Conditioning Centre.

8.2 Executive members must remain in-touch with the club throughout the entire academic term.

8.3 Monthly club meetings for executives will be held via virtual conference call.

8.3.1 Up to 3 general members will be required to attend the monthly club meetings to ensure fair and transparent policy making.

8.4 Emergency meetings may be called for by the President or VP within a 24-hour notice.

9. Amendments

9.1 Any registered U of T members may propose and vote on amendments to this constitution. The executive committee will administer the process of having amendments discussed at general meetings.

9.2 Constitutional amendments shall require a two-thirds majority to be passed at annual general meetings by registered U of T members in attendance.

9.3 The executive committee shall formally adopt the new constitution and submit the revised constitution to the respective University offices (i.e., Centre for Student Engagement, The University of Toronto Mississauga Students' Union, etc.) within two (2) weeks of its approval by executive members.

9.4 Club President and Vice President have the ability to veto any proposed amendment.

9.5 Any veto motion passed by the President or Vice President must go through a review process where the remaining 4 executive members must decide whether the veto will pass.
