Elections

Elections will be held at the membership meeting with the exception of absentia voting through e-mail balloting prior to the membership election meeting. All members of the Elections Committee shall be non-biased in the results of the election and shall be required to disclose any and all conflicts of interest in the election.

a. Announcement of Candidacy

Those wishing to run for office must email the secretary 4 weeks before end of March with the following items: the requested position and one short paragraph (200 words) detailing the reasons they should be considered for the position. The secretary will verify that the candidate is eligible to run. Nominations for officers will start in March of the spring semester.

Candidates must be members in good standing and be part of the group for at least three (3) months prior to the nomination period. The candidates should also be registered for the entire academic year they are expected to hold office.

b. Ballots

A ballot will be sent to each voting member of the chapter.

c. Voting

The executive committee shall strike the Elections Committee and appoint one (1) Chief Returning Officer (CRO) and two (2) Scrutinizers from the general members along with the faculty advisor to conduct and hold elections in March.

Members will be allowed one vote per position

For in-person votes three (3) election dates before March 30th shall be selected for the voting period. These dates will be announced in a minimum of two (2) weeks prior to elections dates and must fall on weekdays. Each voting U of T registered student shall be provided with a paper ballot on the voting dates and asked to place their ballot in an enclosed box.

Mail-in and on-line ballots must be sent back to the Elections Committee within one week of ballots being sent to the chapter.

Voting will require a two-thirds vote of all eligible voters to elect a member to a position.

After the election is over, the Elections Committee shall count the ballots. The candidate with the most votes shall be elected to the position. The Elections Committee shall submit a report of the results of the elections to the Executive Committee and general members.

d. Appointment
New officers will be appointed by a majority of votes cast for each position. In the case of a tie, the candidates will be reviewed by the current officers and the faculty advisor, and the most appropriate candidate will be chosen to fill the position.

Special Elections

In the event that an executive member resigns/forfeits their position prior to November. A special election will be held to fill the vacant position.

IV-E. Announcement of Candidacy

Those wishing to run for office must email the secretary 1 week from announcement of the vacancy with the following items: the requested position and one short paragraph (200 words) detailing the reasons they should be considered for the position. The secretary will verify that the candidate is eligible to run.

Candidates must be members in good standing and be part of the group for at least three (3) months prior to the nomination period.

b. Ballots

No less than 2 weeks after the call for elections, a ballot will be sent to each voting member of the chapter.

c. Voting

The executive committee shall strike the Elections Committee and appoint one (1) Chief Returning Officer (CRO) and two (2) Scrutinizers from the general members along with the faculty advisor to conduct and hold elections.

Mail-in and on-line ballots must be sent back to the Elections Committee within one week of ballots being sent to the chapter.

After the election is over, the Elections Committee shall count the ballots. The candidate with the most votes shall be elected to the position. The Elections Committee shall submit a report of the results of the elections to the Executive Committee and general members.

d. Appointment

New officers will be appointed by a majority of votes cast for each position. In the case of a tie, the candidates will be reviewed by the current officers and the faculty advisor, and the most appropriate candidate will be chosen to fill the position.

V. Termination of Executives or General Members:

Any member of ARMA UTToronto student chapter who commits an act negatively affecting the interests of the student chapter and its members, including non-disclosure of a significant or continuing conflict of interest, may be given notice of removal. The member up for removal shall have the right to defend his/her actions. A vote will be held at an executive meeting, and a 50%+1 majority vote of the current executives present in favor of removal is required. The member must have the right to an appeal before the general membership, and the majority vote of the general membership will have the final say on the matter.

The member will be removed from the chapter’s membership and will lose any privileges associated with being a member of the club.

Executive members are subject to the same termination or impeachment process and, as determined by the vote, may lose their executive position along with their membership to the student chapter.

VI. Finances

The Treasurer shall keep records of all income and expenses. The Treasurer shall present the group’s financial health at the annual general meetings. The Executive Committee will vote on expenditures of over $100.00 by majority vote at an executive meeting.

The group’s executive or members may not engage in activities that are essentially commercial in nature. This is not intended to preclude the collection of membership fees to cover the expenses of the group, or of charges for specific activities, programs or events, or to prohibit groups from engaging in legitimate fundraising. However, the group will not have as a major activity a function that makes it an on-campus part of a commercial organization, will not provide services and goods at a profit when that profit is used for purposes other than those of the organization, and will not pay salaries to some or all of its officers.

VII. Meetings

VII-A. Semi-Annual General Meetings (AGMs):

The group shall hold general meetings at least twice per year, i.e. once per academic term. The Executive Committee will announce these dates one (1) month prior to holding the meetings. These meetings are intended to go over the group’s annual activity plan, financial health and propose or vote on constitutional amendments, if any. Motions will require 2/3 majority of registered voting members in attendance for a vote to be cast. The motion with the most votes will be passed.

VII-B. Executive Committee Meetings.

The executive committee shall meet on a monthly basis. At the first meeting of each semester, the tentative meeting dates will be announced by the President for the rest of the semester.

Attendance

Attendance, for AGM and Election meetings, will be taken in order to determine eligibility for voting membership status as well as eligibility to run for office.
Quorum

For AGMs, two-thirds (2/3) of the total members of the organization shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of official business.

VIII. Annual Reports

VIII-A. Student Chapter Report:

At the end of each year, the executive committee, supported by the officers of the chapter, will prepare a report highlighting the books and records, including minutes of meetings reports on events, and a financial statement for the year.

Copy of the annual report shall be sent, by the President, to the Board of ARMA or its designated recipient.

IX. Amendments

Any registered U of T students may propose and vote on amendments to this constitution. The Executive Committee will administer the process of having amendments discussed at general meetings.

These bylaws are subject to initial approval by The Office of Student Life and subject to revision by the Student Affairs Committee. Following the initial approval by The Office of Student Life, these bylaws may be revised at any time by a vote of at least two-thirds (2/3) of the members of the organization in good standing with regard to the student code of conduct and the bylaws of the University of Toronto.

The Executive Committee shall formally adopt the new constitution and submit the revised constitution to the respective University offices (i.e. The Office of Student Life, The University of Toronto Students’ Union) within two (2) weeks of its approval by general members.
