Biochemistry Undergraduate Student Society (BUSS)
2023-2024 Constitution

Article I: Name

The organization shall be known as the “Biochemistry Undergraduate Student Society,” “BUSS,” hereinafter referred to as the “Union.”

Article II: Definitions

a) “Faculty” refers to the Faculty of Arts and Sciences.
   b) “Department” refers to the Department of Biochemistry.
   c) “ASSU” refers to the Arts and Science Students’ Union.
   d) “Executive” refers to the Executive of the Union.
   e) “Co-presidents” refers to two (2) members who are responsible for leading the Executive during a term of one (1) year from May 1st to April 30th as specified under Article VII, Section 3. The Co-presidents are elected by members of the Union and shall coordinate Executive activities and duties in accordance with Article VI.
   f) “Executives” refers to fourteen (14) members of the Executive who are responsible for the Executive during a term of one (1) year from May 1st to April 30th or seven (7) months from October 1st to April 30th as specified under Article VII, Sections 3 and 4. The Executives are elected by members of the Union.

Article III: Object, Duties, and Functions

Section 1: The object of the Union shall be to provide services for the improvement of education, academic life, and social life of all undergraduates in the Department.

Section 2: Toward the object stated in Section 1, the Union shall:
   a) administer and distribute funds available for the object of the Union;
   b) advocate for student interests and share student experiences with the Department;
   c) promote student representation on Faculty and Department committees; and
   d) provide and assist all other services that may contribute to the object of the Union.

Article IV: Membership

The following persons shall be members of the Union:
   a) all full-time undergraduate students enrolled in a program of study offered by the Department; and
   b) all full-time undergraduate students enrolled in a course offered by the Department.
Article V: Discrimination

All members have a right to equal access to the services offered by the Union. No member of the Union, individually or collectively, shall discriminate on the grounds of race, ethnicity, creed, place of origin, citizenship, political activity, sex, gender, sexual orientation, age, marital status, family status, health status, or physical ability.

Article VI: Procedure

Section 1: Regular meetings of the Executive shall be held at least bi-weekly and notice for regular meetings of the Executive shall be given no less than three (3) days prior to such a meeting.

Section 2: A special meeting of the entire Executive or select members of the Executive may be called at the request of over fifty percent (50%) of the required attendees to consider only such business as may be specified in the notice of the meeting.

Section 3: One (1) general town hall meeting shall be held in September. The Executive shall set and communicate dates for the general town hall meeting to all members at least one (1) week in advance of the event.

Section 4: Each member of the Executive shall have one (1) vote.

Section 5: No member of the Executive shall hold more than one (1) seat nor exercise more than one (1) vote at any time.

Section 6: At all meetings of the Executive, every motion shall be decided by the majority vote with at least sixty percent (60%) of the Executive present and voting. Executives may choose to abstain from voting. In that case, the vote still counts to meeting quorum but is neither in favour nor in opposition to the motion.

Section 7: The Executive may adopt rules of procedure consistent with this Constitution in order to facilitate the performance of its duties.

Section 8: The Executive may delegate tasks and responsibilities or strike as many committees as it may deem necessary for the performance of its duties.
Article VII: Executive

Section 1: The Executive shall serve as the governing body of the Union.

Section 2: The Executive shall consist of fourteen (14) members including: two (2) Co-presidents, Vice President, Director of Operations, Director of Finance and Sponsorships, Director of Communications, Director of Academic Events, Director of Social Events, Graphic Designer, Mentorship Coordinator, Fundraising Coordinator, Second-year Representative, Third-year Representative, and Fourth-year Representative.

Section 3: The Executive shall be elected annually during the last week of March (Spring Election) for a term of one (1) year from May 1st to April 30th with the exception of the Second-year Representative, Third-year Representative, and Fourth-year Representative.

Section 4: The Second-year Representative, Third-year Representative, and Fourth-year Representative shall be elected within the first three (3) weeks of September (Fall Election) for a term of seven (7) months from October 1st to April 30th. Any unfilled positions from the Spring Election must be available for election in the Fall Election.

Section 5: In the case that an Executive position is unfilled following the Fall Election, the Co-presidents shall complete the responsibilities of that position or delegate the responsibility to another member of the Executive if they are in agreement to completing the task.

Section 6: Elected members of the Executive must be members of the ASSU and shall take office on the specified start date of their term as outlined in Article VII, Sections 3 and 4.

Section 7: One (1) Co-president shall preside as the Chairperson at meetings of the Executive or may appoint another member to act as Chairperson. The Chairperson shall not be entitled to a vote on any matters discussed at the meeting.

Section 8: The Executive should, to the best of its ability, report on its activities to all members of the Union.

Section 9: A member of the Executive may be removed from their position by an affirmative vote with at least sixty percent (60%) of the Executive present and voting provided that two (2) weeks notice of motion is given to all members of the Executive. An Executive may be removed if they fail to comply with any part of this constitution and the reason for removal must be documented.

Section 10: All Executives must be present at regular Executive meetings from September to April with a maximum of two (2) unexcused absences allowed. The reason for missing a meeting must be given to both Co-presidents within three (3) days of the missed meeting. The Co-presidents shall determine the reasonableness of the grounds for missing a meeting and either excuse the absence or count the absence as an unexcused absence. Failure to comply with this requirement shall result in the loss of membership on the Executive for the remainder of their term as outlined in Article VII, Sections 3 and 4. It shall be incumbent upon the Union to inform the Executive before any Executive meeting at which non-attendance would jeopardize their status.
